

Thread Conversion Chart

This handy chart is to help Brother Embroidery Machine owners match threads to our 1000M Spools of Floriani Threads

Some colours will be a better match than others and for some shades there is no near match and this has been left blank. Please use these comparisons as a guide only.

Floriani Thread has the best sheen we have ever seen in a Polyester. There are over 300 colours in our range which includes some gorgeous mixture (tweed effect) and variegated colours in Rayon.

This fantastic shadecard costs over £12 to produce but we are subsidising the price to supply at only £5. It's well worth the investment for accurate colour matching to your fabrics and embroidery designs.

The best metallic for your machine is this easy-running, fine Japanese thread. It's available on 1,000M and 3000M sizes from only £9.99. See our website for colours.

When using larger cones and spools it is usually better to stand them behind your machine and use a thread stand. This is an economical option at only £3.99.

#60 is on the grey spool in white or black. #90 on the green spool.

For best results use the correct bobbin-fill for your machine. Brother #60 is for Sewing and Embroidery combination models whilst the #90 is for NV700/750 & embroidery-only models such as PE150 to PE200.
